News & Info...

Taxpayers do not receive services if they do not pay for property taxes. In order for taxpayers to be 100% covered by services such as Fire Protection, they must pay property taxes.

The Penticton Indian Band Property Taxation

Department is now officially in the First Nations Fiscal Management Act!! (FMA)

(No longer Section 83 taxation)

You can view our new Laws on the First Nations Gazette website.

Follow these steps: www.fng.ca

 First Nations Gazette

Part II – Laws & Bylaws – Search by First Nation type in Penticton, you will then see each year from 2009-2015 listed. Look for the following PIB Laws:

* PENTICTON INDIAN BAND PROPERTY TAXATION LAW 2015

* PENTICTON INDIAN BAND ASSESSMENT LAW 2015

The First Nations Fiscal Management Act (FMA) is First Nation-led legislation, which came into force on April 1, 2006. As an alternative to section 83 of the Indian Act, the FMA provides a comprehensive regulatory framework to support First Nation economic growth.

For more information about the FMA you are encouraged to visit the First Nations Tax Commission's new and improved website! It's packed full of information regarding First Nation Property Taxation.
