

PIB Post-Secondary

PIB Post-Secondary Education provides counseling and advice to assist students in planning their post-secondary education journey.

Things to consider when applying for Post-Secondary Education Funding:

1. Funding is limited and not all students may be funded.
2. Deadline for applications is May 17th annually. Students have to submit an application for each academic year. We consider Fall/Winter an academic year and Spring/Summer another academic year.
3. We fund students based on priority:
 - A. First Priority—Continuing students from the previous year
 - B. Second Priority—Graduating secondary students
 - C. Third Priority—Students who are self-funded
 - D. Fourth Priority—All other students
4. There are 4 levels of funding.
 - A. Level 1—Certificate or Diploma Programs
 - B. Level 2—Undergraduate Programs
 - C. Level 3—Masters Programs
 - D. Level 4—Doctoral Programs

PIB Funds the following when accepted for Post-Secondary Funding:

1. Tuition
2. Living Allowance
3. Books & Supplies—Max $400/term
4. Travel—depends on school location—Max $200/term
5. Transcript Fees & Application Fees
6. Tutoring—Depending on budget

PIB Post-Secondary is obligated to administer funds in accordance with Indigenous Services Canada's Post-Secondary Policy. Therefore, students, programs and institutions have to be eligible in order to qualify for funding.
