UNMASK YOUR AUTHENTIC SELF DISCOVER. REFLECT. EXPRESS

REGISTERED CLINICAL COUNSELLOR,
CHRISTEL MITCHELL.

Are you ready to peel back the layers and reveal your true self? Join us for "Unmask Your Authentic Self", an Art Therapy Session designed to help you discover and reflect between how you present yourself to others and your genuine self.

The goal of this group is to help support and improve well-being. Deepen your understanding of self-perception and authenticity. This will help those that suppress feelings, behaviours, differences, or difficulties, to try and blend in with the people around them.

Includes: Education about masking, and inclusive discussions through creativity during the art therapy project, and ongoing guidance throughout from Registered Clinical Counsellor, Christel Mitchell.

SHOUT OUT TO MEADOW ARCHAND-SQUAKIN!!

Meadow had an interview on Global News last month about her involvement in the Female Lacrosse Program!

In January, she got to try out for the first ever national Team Canada in women's box lacrosse in Langley.

"Playing a sport fosters a sense of community and relationship building and embodies cultural values," says Meadow Arcand-Squakin.

Image Credit: Athena Bonneau, Local Journalism Initiative

While she is awaiting the outcome of the tryouts she shares a little about her journey in lacrosse.

She has joined other teams along her way including the Penticton Minor Lacrosse Team, South Okanagan Junior Flames, Team BC at NAIG (North American Indigenous Games) and a newly formed team called "Storm" - an Indigenous female athletes team that travelled throughout nations and internationally, playing lacrosse at the USBOXLA Nationals.

Meadow Arcand-Squakin coached at a practice game with the next generation of female lacrosse players from the Penticton Heat team.

Now she is giving back by both playing and coaching for the BC Interior Female Lacrosse in sn?pin?tktn?.

Health through wellness

Expression of Interest

Indigenous Student Program

Full-time positions - Various Locations, BC

The First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) is a diverse and transformational health organization of professional, innovative and dedicated team members and leaders. As the first of its kind in Canada, the FNHA works as a health-and-wellness partner with BC First Nations to support self-determination and decision-making to improve health outcomes.

Are you a fiercely compassionate person and want to gain insight into health care provided by FNHA? Then this is for you!

Here is what you will gain and experience from the Indigenous Student Program:

- Meaningful experiences to pursue a career at FNHA or in the health care field
- Learn different aspects of First Nations health care programs and services
- Student orientation incorporating cultural experiences and an Elder
 - Students said they enjoyed meeting and connecting, culture tie-ins, learning more about the different parts of the organization and getting to hear from current staff about their roles and experiences.
- Training such as San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety & Respect in the Workplace
- Professional development courses and LinkedIn Learning account
- Direct support and regular check-ins
- Peer support network
- End of term cultural ceremony and social
- Ongoing career support

What you can expect from us?

Joining our family means joining an organization that supports personal and professional growth. Our Vision, Mission, Shared Values, Seven Directives, Operating Principles and Leadership Statement will guide you in your daily work.

At the FNHA, you will have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history. With a unique governing health structure and mandate, our fluid work environment means you can play an active role in real change.

Our wholistic approach to wellness, based on First Nations teachings, is incorporated into all aspects of work culture.

Start with us, and you might wind up in unexpected places. Many of our staff throughout the organization have started in one of our student positions. Now is your chance to move your career in a new direction! If you want to make a difference and have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history, then come join FNHA!
